

Riley (report sample)

Your literacy journey

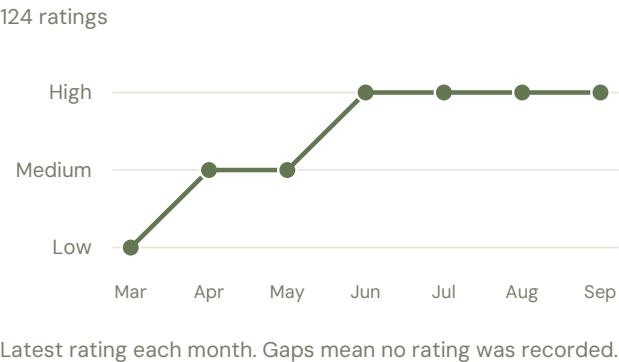

Mar 10, 2026 – Sep 5, 2026 | K

Sample · synthetic practice data

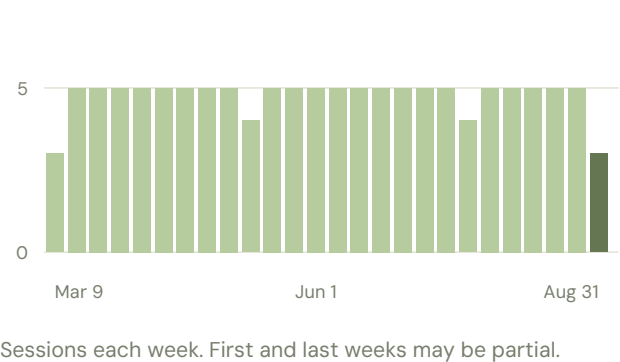

Family engagement snapshot

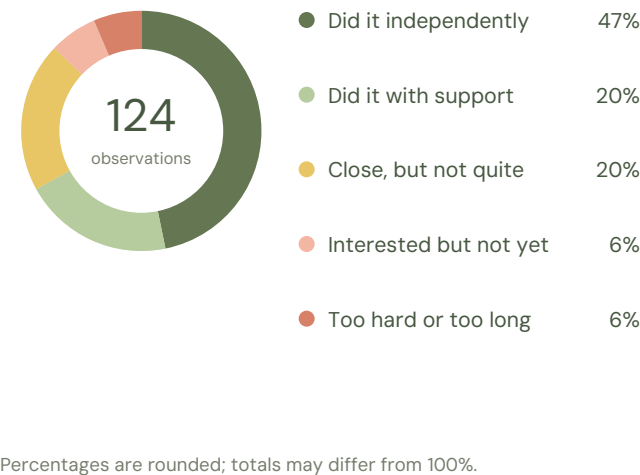

Parent confidence

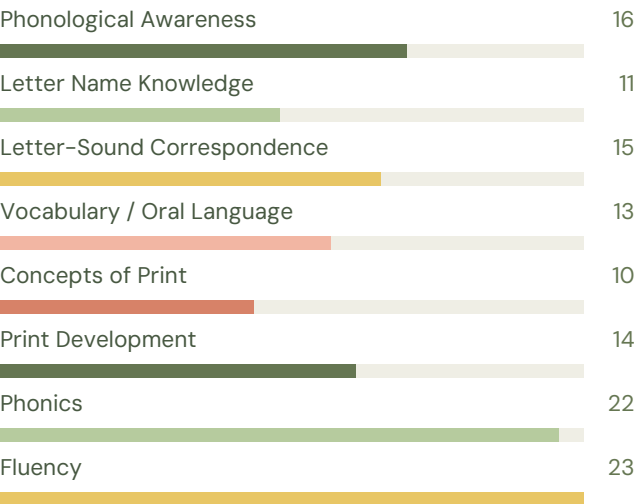

Our practice rhythm

How did it go?

What we practiced

● Literacy practice by skill

These are parent observations, not an assessment or a mastery score.

- Did it independently
- Did it with support
- Close, but not quite
- Interested but not yet
- Too hard or too long

Phonological Awareness

Practice sessions: 16 · Different activities: 12

Most recent observation: Close, but not quite

Letter Name Knowledge

Practice sessions: 11 · Different activities: 10

Most recent observation: Did it independently

Letter-Sound Correspondence

Practice sessions: 15 · Different activities: 11

Most recent observation: Did it independently

Vocabulary / Oral Language

Practice sessions: 13 · Different activities: 11

Most recent observation: Did it with support

Concepts of Print

Practice sessions: 10 · Different activities: 10

Most recent observation: Did it independently

Print Development

Practice sessions: 14 · Different activities: 10

Most recent observation: Did it independently

Phonics

Practice sessions: 22 · Different activities: 20

Most recent observation: Did it independently

Fluency

Practice sessions: 23 · Different activities: 20

Most recent observation: Close, but not quite

● What's next

Revisit a favorite activity together. Model it once, then give your child a turn. Keep practice playful and share what you notice with your child's teacher.

You are your child's first and best teacher.

Includes cloud history and any pending practice on this device. History begins with the sessions recorded by the app; older sessions may not be available.